How your policy works

This section explains who is involved in this contract of insurance, when the policy starts, and what happens if you change your mind.

We also explain the other important documents that make up your policy.

Contract between you and us

Your policy is a legal contract between you and us. We agree to give you the insurance set out in your policy for the premium you pay us.

More than one policyholder

If more than one person is named as the policyholder on your Certificate of Insurance, then each person is jointly responsible for:

- the completeness and accuracy of information in any application forms, statements, claims or documents that are provided by any one of them to us,
- complying with the conditions of your policy, and
- the acts and omissions of all policyholders.

If more than one person is named as the policyholder on your Certificate of Insurance, then any one policyholder will be taken to be authorised by all policyholders to transact on the policy (including to change or cancel your policy, or make a claim under the policy).

When your policy starts

When you pay the annual premium or first monthly instalment, then your policy starts on the time and date shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

If you renew your current policy, then your policy starts at midnight on your renewal date.

Cooling off period

When you take out a new policy or renew a current policy with us, we give you a cooling off period of 21 days. The cooling off period starts from:

- the date and time we issue a new policy to you, or
- midnight on your renewal date.

If you want to cancel your policy during the cooling off period, you must tell us you want to do that. If you cancel your policy during the cooling off period, we refund your premium in full (as long as you haven't made a claim).

Documents that make up your policy

Your policy includes this Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), your Certificate of Insurance and any Supplementary Product Disclosure Statements. These documents show the conditions that apply to your policy. Please read the documents carefully and keep them in a safe place.

1. Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

This PDS sets out the conditions that apply to your policy including what we do and don't cover, the exclusions that apply under your policy, and what we pay when you make a claim.

We give you a PDS with your Certificate of Insurance when you take out a new policy with us. You can download a copy of our PDS from www.honeyinsurance.com/documents.

2. Certificate of Insurance

Your Certificate of Insurance shows the type of cover that applies to your policy and also shows any specific details that apply to your policy.

For example, your policy number, home address, construction type, your period of insurance, the premium for your policy, and any excesses that apply to your policy.

We give you a Certificate of Insurance when you take out a new policy, renew a current policy, or make a change to your policy.

When you receive your Certificate of Insurance, you should check the details to make sure they are correct. If the details are incorrect, please contact us.

3. Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement

If we need to make a change to the PDS conditions, we may issue a Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement which sets out the change.

If we issue any Supplementary Product Disclosure Statements, we will give you a copy.

Smart Home Program

This section provides an overview of the Smart Home Program.

Conditions apply to the Smart Home Program.

Your Certificate of Insurance will identify whether the Smart Home Program applies to your policy.

The Smart Home Program

The Smart Home Program provides eligible policyholders the option to receive a smart home sensor kit that can detect and alert you to common household risks when correctly installed, activated and maintained in an operational state. If the Smart Home Program applies to your policy, you will be entitled to a premium discount, subject to the terms of the Smart Home Program set out in this section 2.

Eligibility

If you are eligible, you will be presented with the option to participate in the Smart Home Program before the start of your policy.

Adding the Smart Home Program to your policy

If you agree to add the Smart Home Program to your policy, this will be set out in the Certificate of Insurance.

If you did not elect to participate in the Smart Home Program before your policy started, you will not be able to opt in to the Smart Home Program during the period of insurance. You may be entitled to add the Smart Home Program to your policy at renewal.

Installing and activating the smart home sensor kit

If the Smart Home Program applies to your policy, a smart home sensor kit will be provided to you at no additional cost. We will not use data from sensors in the claims process.

The smart home sensor kit will be delivered to the insured address. To be eligible for the Smart Home Program discount described on page 16:

- you must install and activate the smart home sensor kit within 14 days after you receive it.
- the smart home sensor kit must remain operational for the period of insurance after installation.

Honey Insurance will notify you by email or SMS on a regular basis if Sensors are detected to be offline. If you identify that the smart home sensor kit is defective you must notify Honey Insurance within 7 business days on the contact details set out in this PDS.

Premium discounts and repayments

A Smart Home Program discount will be applied to your premium if you install and keep the smart home sensor kit operational in accordance with the terms of the Smart Home Program set out in this Section 2.

If the smart home sensor kit is detected to be offline for more than 14 days in any given month, you will need to repay the discounted premium related to that entire month.

You will not need to repay any discount if the smart home sensor kit is not operational because it is defective and you notified Honey Insurance within 7 days after identifying the defect.

If the Smart Home Program applies to your policy, the amount of the Smart Home Program discount will be set out on your Certificate of Insurance, and you will be asked to consent to us collecting any discount you are required to repay, including the method and timing of repayment when you are added to the program.

If you pay your premium by the month, any Smart Home Program discount that you are required to repay will be debited with the premium instalment payable in the next month. If you pay your premium annually, the discount repayment will be deducted in the month following the period where sensors were not activated for more than 14 days in a month.

Insured events

We cover loss or damage to your home or your contents that is caused by certain events, these events are set out in table 'Insured events' on page 28.

For us to cover you for loss or damage the event must happen:

- at the insured address, and
- during the period of insurance.

The general exclusions shown on pages 77-82 apply to all areas of this section.

Making a claim – new for old contents

If you make a claim and it is settled by replacing your damaged or lost contents, then you will be given new items to replace your old items – no matter how old your items are. However, the as new value of the following contents items will be reduced for age, wear and tear:

- floor carpets that are over 10 years old,
- clothing.

Your sum insured

Your sum insured is the amount you choose to cover your home or your contents up to. It's important for you to choose a sum insured amount that is enough to cover the cost to rebuild your home and replace your contents items if they are totally destroyed by an insured event – for example, a fire.

When you set your sum insured for your home you should look at:

- the cost to rebuild your home based on materials and labour, not just your home's market value, and
- any additional costs to rebuild your home to comply with current building laws – this may increase the total building costs.

When you set your sum insured for your contents you should look at:

- the costs to replace your items at today's prices, and
- all your contents within each room of your house, for example clothing, linen, and furniture.

When we send you an offer to renew your policy, we will increase your sum insured by the uplift rate. This helps to protect your sum insured against the effects of increasing costs. Even though we offer you that increase, you don't have to accept it.

Monitoring your sum insured

You can ask us to change your sum insured at any time. It's your responsibility to regularly review your sum insured to make sure it provides the right amount of cover for your home and your contents.

Legal liability

We provide legal liability cover as part of your policy. It covers:

- you if someone makes a claim against you or sues you for something which you may be liable for – this is known as your legal liability,
- your legal costs to deal with the claim.

The legal liability cover we provide depends on:

- the type of policy you have with us – that is, Home Insurance or Contents Insurance, and
- whether you are an owner-occupier or tenant at the insured address.

For us to cover you, your liability must arise from something that happens during the period of insurance.

We don't cover liability arising out of or in connection with some situations, events and types of loss or damage. Those exclusions are set out in this section under each of the types of cover we provide.

The legal liability exclusions shown on pages 74-75 apply to all areas of this section.

Limit:

Up to $20,000,000 for each accident (less any relevant excess) to include:

- compensation amounts,
- costs for legal representation or advice from lawyers appointed by us, and
- other legal costs you incur (as long as you get our approval before you incur them).
We will approve all reasonable costs in a timely way.

The limit applies for each accident regardless of the number of claims which may result from that accident.

When your legal liability stops

If we pay the maximum legal liability amount for the claims against you arising out of a single accident, then your cover for legal liability ends on the date we make our last payment.

Your legal liability cover also ends if your policy ends because we pay the maximum amount for loss or damage to your home or contents.

Home insurance

You are covered for:

Legal liability as an owner-occupier of the home to pay compensation for loss or damage resulting from an accident that occurs or arises at the insured address and which causes:

- death or injury, or
- loss of or damage to property.

For example, if you don't repair a broken balcony railing at your home and someone falls through it and hurts themselves, then you may be liable to pay them compensation for that accident.

Contents Insurance

You are covered for:

Your legal liability and the legal liability of anyone who permanently lives with you at the home (except for a boarder or housemate) to pay compensation for loss or damage resulting from an accident that occurs in Australia and which causes:

- death or injury, or
- loss of or damage to property.

For example, if you are riding a bicycle and hit a jogger because you weren't paying attention to the path in front of you, then you may be liable to pay them compensation for that accident.

You are not covered for:

Your legal liability as landlord or owner-occupier of the home, unless you are covered as the landlord or owner-occupier of a home unit as set out below. We cover liability as a landlord or owner-occupier under Home Insurance.

Your legal liability as a tenant for damage to the home (but we do cover your liability for loss or damage caused by the insured events 'Fire' or 'Leaks').

This section explains the responsibilities you have, and conditions that apply to your policy.

It is important for you to know about these responsibilities and conditions.

If you don't comply with any condition or term of your policy, it may affect whether your claim is paid.

General conditions

If you don't comply with any condition or term of your policy, it may affect whether we pay your claim.

Your duty of disclosure

You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

What you must tell us before you enter into or vary this insurance contract

Before you enter into or vary an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

What you must tell us before you renew this insurance contract

Before you renew this contract of insurance, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. When you renew your policy, we may provide you a copy of information you have previously told us.

If we provide you with a copy of your information, you must contact us if there has been a change. If there have not been any changes, you must tell us. If you do not contact us, you will be taken to have told us there is no change.

Also, if we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

You have this duty until we agree to renew the contract of insurance.

Who needs to tell us and why?

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the policy. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure you and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us something you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

If you do not understand

If you do not understand your duty of disclosure, please contact us on 137 137.

What we may do if you breach your duty of disclosure

If you or any person covered by your policy does not tell us everything that is relevant or misleads us before entering into a contract of insurance with us, and each time you vary or renew your policy, we may:

- refuse to pay a claim or reduce the amount we pay,
- cancel your policy, or
- if fraud is involved, treat your policy as if it never existed.

What you must do if your circumstances change

You must tell us as soon as reasonably possible if any of the following occur:

- There is a material change to the construction or use of your home. For example you renovate your home and add an extra room, or you start running a small business from home.
- You begin to rent out your home (if you previously told us that you live in it or not, or it was unoccupied).
- You run a business from your home.
- There are any physical changes in or around your home or your contents which increase the risk of loss or damage to them. For example you change the security features of your home.
- Any criminal convictions recorded against you (or any person who permanently lives with you).

If any of these change in circumstances occur, we may charge you an increased premium from the date you tell us of the change or we may impose an excess at any subsequent renewal.

We may also refuse to pay a claim, reduce the amount payable for a claim or cancel your policy if you have not advised us of any of these changes as soon as reasonably possible after you became aware of them.

If you don't comply with the terms of your policy

You must comply with all the policy conditions set out in your Product Disclosure Statement, any Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement and Certificate of Insurance.

Breach of your policy

If you fail to comply with any term of your policy, this may affect whether Honey Insurance pay your claim, or, if we decide to pay your claim, how much we will pay for your claim.

Avoidance

We may be entitled to treat your policy as if it did not exist from when it started if on your part there is:

- fraud,
- misrepresentation when you apply for insurance or renew your policy, or
- non-disclosure of material information.

Your premium

Your premium is the amount you pay for the cover we give you under your policy. It includes any government statutory charges, levies, duties, GST or other taxes that may apply.

For more information about how your premium is calculated and discounts which may apply, review the 'Smart Home Program' section of the PDS on page 14 and the 'Premium & discount guide' section of the PDS on page 104.

Paying your premium

If you want to pay your annual premium by monthly instalments, you can ask us to automatically deduct monthly payments from your account or credit card with a bank, credit union or building society.

Your Certificate of Insurance shows your premium amount and whether you are paying annually in advance or by monthly instalments if you choose the Pay by the Month option.

If you are paying:

- annually, then you must pay by the due date, or
- by monthly instalments, then you must make sure that you have enough money in your account to cover each instalment on your payment date.

If you don't pay your premium

If you are paying your premium annually in advance and you don't pay the full amount by the due date shown on your Certificate of Insurance, then your policy won't be valid and you won't be covered. In that case, you need to reapply for cover.

If you are paying your premium by monthly instalments and any instalment payment is overdue for at least 14 days, we may refuse to pay a claim.

If, after the first instalment is paid, any following instalment is overdue for one month, we may immediately cancel your policy. If we cancel your policy, we will send a letter to your last known address which tells you the reason why and when we cancelled your policy.

Smart Home Program premium discount

If the Smart Home Program applies to your policy and you do not meet the conditions regarding installation, activation and ongoing operation of the smart home sensor kit as set out in the 'Smart Home Program' section of the PDS on page 14, you may need to repay the Smart Home Program discount. See page 14 to 16 for details.

Changing your premium in our renewal offer

If you make a claim after we send you an offer to renew your policy but before the renewal date, then we may need to increase the premium in our renewal offer.

When we deduct your payments for Pay by the Month

Once you give us your account or credit card details, we deduct your premium on the day of the month nominated by you at the time of policy purchase. Where the day of month you nominate occurs before your policy commencement date your first payment will occur in the following month on the nominated day. In this case, an additional payment will be deducted in the last month of your policy period.

Where your payment date is the 29th, 30th or 31st of each month, for months that don't have those dates we will deduct your payment on the last day of the month.

If your payment date falls on a non-business day in Sydney or Melbourne (e.g. a weekend or public holiday), then your financial institution won't process the payment request until the next business day. If you're not sure when the debit will be processed to your account, you should contact your financial institution.

Automatic renewal of premium payment

If you have previously registered for an automatic renewal arrangement, we will automatically renew your cover and that means your monthly payments will also continue. You can opt out of your automatic renewal arrangement at any time.

If you wish to opt out from automatic renewal, update your automatic renewal arrangement or you need to update your cover you can contact us for more information.

Conditions for Pay by the Month

- If you make any changes to your policy which affect your premium, then we may increase or decrease your payment amount in line with your new premium. You may need to make an additional payment.
- If your premium changes when we offer to renew your policy, then we may increase or decrease your payment amount in line with your new premium.
- When you pay the first instalment, your insurance cover starts from the first day of the period of insurance shown on your Certificate of Insurance.
- We continue to deduct monthly payments from your account until you tell us to cancel or change that arrangement.

- If another payment falls due after your financial institution rejects a payment request but before you pay the missed instalment, we may deduct 2 instalments on your next payment date.

 - 3 or more payment requests from any other type of account.

Managing or changing your policy

Changes that you ask for

You may ask us to make a change to your policy. If you do that, then we may charge you an additional premium. The change or addition only takes place once you have agreed to the change and we will confirm the changes in writing to you with on a new Certificate of Insurance.

You will be required to pay additional premium as follows:

- Where you pay your premium monthly, any charge will be equally spread across remaining monthly payments in line with your existing direct debit agreement with us.
- Where you pay your premium annually, we will immediately charge the bank account or credit/debit card used when initially taking out the policy. You may update this at the time of the change.

Waiver

A waiver is where we agree to forgo or relinquish a condition in your contract. If we agree to alter a condition of your policy the waiver will be provided to you in writing.

Renewing your policy

We may offer to renew your current policy. If we do, we will send you a renewal Certificate of Insurance before your policy expires. You are responsible for checking the details that apply for the new insurance period and advise us of any changes. If you do not contact us with any changes, we will deduct your new premium payments during the next period of insurance.

If we decide not to renew your policy, we will provide you with notice of this decision prior to your current policy expiring.

Receiving your documents and notices

If you agree, we may send you your policy documents and notices electronically. We will continue to provide these documents and notices electronically until you tell us otherwise. Each electronic communication will be deemed to be received by you at the time it leaves our information system, unless we receive a failure to deliver notification. Cancelling your policy

Cancellation by you

You may cancel your policy at any time, including during the cooling off period. If you want to cancel your policy (or cancel the cover under your policy for a home or your contents shown on your Certificate of Insurance) you need to call us or tell us in writing. The cancellation will take effect from:

- the date we receive your request, or
- another date you request, if we agree to that date.

Cancellation by us

We can only cancel your policy when we are legally allowed to. We will provide you notice in writing with our reasoning prior to the cancellation.

Premium refunds when a policy is cancelled outside the cooling off period

Annual Premiums

If a policy (or cover under your policy for a home or contents shown on your Certificate of Insurance) is cancelled, we will refund the portion of your annual premium which relates to the remaining period of insurance.

Monthly Instalment Premiums

If you are paying your premium by monthly instalments, we will refund the portion of your most recent monthly instalment which relates to the period between your cancellation date, and the date on which cover related to your most recent instalment was due to expire. If your most recent instalment does not cover the entire period up to your cancellation date, we will deduct an amount from your nominated account to reflect the period up to your cancellation date.

What you need to know about claiming

This section explains what happens when you need to claim on your policy and the process that we will follow with your claim.

This includes how to make a claim under your policy, your responsibilities when making a claim, how we will settle your claim, and what excesses may apply to your claim.

Making a claim

Honey Insurance are responsible for managing all claims made under this policy. Where the words 'we', 'our' and 'us' are used in this Claims section, they mean 'Honey Insurance'.

If you need to make a claim on your policy, there are certain steps you are required to take and responsibilities that you have so we can manage your claim and make a stressful time as easy as we can for you.

Claim responsibilities

You must co-operate with us fully, even if we have already paid your claim.

This includes:

- if we ask you, provide proof that you owned the lost or damaged property. For example, receipts, invoices, photographs, valuations or warranties,
- immediately send us any communications you receive about the incident. This includes telling us about any pending court proceedings or offers of settlement.
- giving us any information, written statements, evidence and help we may need to defend, prosecute and investigate the claim. This may include:
 - asserting rights against any person nominated by us,
 - attending interviews with our assessors and/or investigators,
 - assisting any agents we appoint (e.g. solicitors),
 - attending court to give evidence,
 - telling us about any impending prosecutions or inquest,
- keeping damaged property so we can inspect it (but if the damaged property is a health or safety hazard, then you should dispose of it immediately),
- if required, allow us reasonable access to your property to assess your claim,
- immediately tell us if there is another insurance policy that covers the loss or damage,
- any other responsibility highlighted in the “when an incident occurs”, “lodging and assessing your claim”, or “settling your claim” sections.

Our rights

What we may do

If something happens that causes loss or damage or that you may be legally liable for, we may:

- take over the matter and defend or settle any claim in your name or the name of any person that is entitled to be covered under your policy. We can appoint a lawyer to advise or represent you, and we decide how to defend or settle the claim,
- represent you or any person that is entitled to be covered under your policy, at an inquest, official enquiry and in court proceedings about any event covered by your policy.

What can affect your claim

- You don't cooperate with us.
- You don't comply with any condition of your policy or Certificate of Insurance.
- You don't keep your home and your contents in good condition and don't take reasonable care to protect them from loss or damage.
- You don't provide adequate proof of ownership or value of an item.

Proof of ownership/value

When you make a claim, we may ask you to provide proof that you owned an item. For example, receipts, invoices, photographs or valuations.

- You should get and keep regular written valuations from a qualified and experienced valuer in Australia for your unique and valuable items including jewellery, paintings, works of art or watches. A valuation should include a full detailed description of the item and its value.

Our property

- If we replace or pay for an item, then the damaged item becomes our property.

If we pay the sum insured for your claim

If we pay you the maximum amount for loss or damage to your home or your contents then:

- your policy ends,
- you are not entitled to a premium refund,
- if you were paying by monthly direct debit instalments, then we'll deduct from your final payment the monthly instalments to cover the rest of your policy's period of insurance.

When an incident occurs

What you need to do

You must:

- if a criminal act may have caused the loss or damage, you must immediately contact the police, and tell us where you made the report, the police officer's name and the incident number,
- do everything you reasonably can to limit the loss or damage and stop more loss or damage,
- keep damaged property so we can inspect it (but if the damaged property is a health or safety hazard, then you should dispose of it immediately).

What we will do

We will:

- assist with arranging help to ensure your home is safe from additional damage caused by the insured events.

What you must not do

You must not:

- do any repairs or throw out damaged property (unless it is a health or safety hazard or we agree),
- admit liability to anyone,
- negotiate, pay or settle a claim with anyone.

Lodging and assessing your claim

What you need to do

You must:

- tell us about the incident and make a claim as soon as possible,
- if a police report has been completed, tell us the incident number, where you made the report and the officers name,
- tell us about and send us a copy of any notice, letter, claim writ or summons against you relating to the incident as soon as possible after you receive it,
- provide any additional information we request in a timely manner.

What we will do

We will:

- tell you what you need to do to help us process your claim,
- arrange for assessment of damaged property,
- review who is at fault and make any further enquiries to determine who is at fault if required,
- assess the damage and any repair quotes,
- accept your claim if it meets the terms and conditions of your policy, or decline your claim and provide you with a clear explanation for our decision.

What you must not do

You must not:

- give false or misleading information,
- If you make a false or fraudulent claim under your policy, we can reduce the amount we pay you, refuse to pay your claim, and your policy may also be cancelled as allowed by law,
- If any other person who is entitled to benefit under this policy makes a false or fraudulent claim under your policy, we may reduce the amount we pay them, or refuse to pay their claim.

Settling your claim

To determine the most appropriate way to settle your claim, we consider factors such as the terms and conditions of your policy, safety, timeliness, cost, and any legal obligations.

Your claim will be settled in one or more of the following ways:

- 1 Repair or rebuild.
- 2 Replace your items with new ones.
- 3 Cash settlement to repair or replace.
- 4 Pay your mortgagee or credit provider.

1. Repair or rebuild

Repair or rebuild your home as new – that is, repair or rebuild your home using:

- the same materials if they are readily available in Australia, or
- equivalent materials in terms of quality, purpose and specifications.

If your home is destroyed, we may agree to let you rebuild it on another site.

Repair your contents items – that is, repair them as far as reasonably possible to their original condition using materials that are readily available in Australia.

2. Replace your items with new ones

Replace your contents items as new – that is, replace them with new items which are:

- readily available in Australia, and
- which are their current equivalent in terms of quality and specifications, regardless of brand or supplier.

3. Cash settlement to repair or replace

Home – Pay you the replacement value up to the:

- home sum insured
- sum insured that applies under the optional benefit 'Individual items at home' or 'Individual or grouped items away from home'.

Contents – Pay you the replacement value of the items, including through the use of gift cards, or store credits, up to the:

- contents sum insured,
- sum insured that applies under the optional benefit 'Individual items at home' or 'Individual or grouped items away from home'.

If we decide to pay you a cash settlement, we will pay you the amount it would cost you to repair or replace your home or your contents (as described in point 1 and 2 above), based on the reasonable market cost to do this.

If you elect a cash settlement, we will pay you the amount it would have cost us to repair or replace your home or contents (as described in point 1 and 2 above). This may be less than the amount it will cost you.

4. Pay your mortgagee or credit provider

If we cash settle your claim, then we may be required to first pay the mortgagee or credit provider shown on your Certificate of Insurance the outstanding debt amount you owe under the mortgage up to your home sum insured.

The terms and conditions of this policy apply to a mortgagee or other credit provider the same way they apply to you.

If we pay the mortgagee or credit provider, we will then pay you any remaining balance.

Types of excesses

Your excess is the amount you pay towards the cost of each claim you make. Your Certificate of Insurance shows the type, and amount of excesses that applies to your policy. More than one excess may apply to a single claim.

Paying your excess

If you make a claim, we will let you know:

- which excesses apply and how much they are,
- when and how to pay any excesses, and
- who to pay any excesses to – we may ask you to pay an excess to us or a third party on our behalf. For example, a repairer or supplier.

In some cases, we may deduct any excess from the amount we pay you.

Type of excess that may apply		 Home	 Contents
Basic excess	Shown on your Certificate of Insurance.	✓	✓
Additional excess		✓	✓
Earthquake excess		✓	✓
Unoccupied home excess	$1,500	✓	✓
Items away from home excess	Shown on your Certificate of Insurance.	✗	✓
Mobile phone excess		✗	✓

Types of excesses that may apply

Basic excess

Your basic excess is the amount that you pay towards your claim. It may only apply to certain claims and situations.

If the same insured event causes loss or damage to both your home and your contents, then you only need to pay one excess. If different excesses apply to your Home Insurance and Contents Insurance policies, then you must pay the higher excess.

You can reduce your premium if you choose a higher excess amount. Contact Honey Insurance if you want to do that.

Additional excess

An additional excess may apply in some situations. You pay the additional excess on top of your basic excess.

Earthquake excess

If an earthquake causes loss or damage to your home or your contents, then the earthquake excess shown on your Certificate of Insurance applies during each consecutive 48-hour period. You pay the earthquake excess on top of your basic excess.

Unoccupied home excess

If your home is unoccupied for more than 60 days and suffers loss or damage from an insured event, then you need to pay a $1,500 excess for each claim you make.

Items away from home excess

If you have the optional benefit 'Items away from home', then you need to pay a $300 excess for each claim you make.

Mobile phone excess

If you have the optional benefit 'Mobile phones', then you need to pay a $200 excess for each phone you claim for.

Depending on your claims history, an additional mobile phone excess may also apply if shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Reimbursing your excess

If you have paid your excess and we later determine someone else is responsible for the incident, and we can recover our claims costs from them, we will reimburse your excess.

Claims that are less than your excess

We won't proceed with your claim if the total amount you are claiming is less than the excesses that apply to your claim.

Claims we decline or you withdraw

If we decline your claim due to fraud, you must reimburse us for any costs we have already incurred or paid towards your claim. This includes costs such as assessment costs, investigative costs, and costs to make your property safe.

If we decline your claim for a reason other than fraud, or you decide to withdraw your claim, you must reimburse us for any amount we have already paid towards any benefits under your claim. However, you do not need to reimburse our costs such as assessment costs, investigative costs, and costs to make your property safe in emergency situations.

Other claim considerations

Reductions we may apply

We will not replace these items listed below. We will pay you the cost to replace those items less an amount that reflects the reduction for age, wear and tear:

- floor carpets that are over 10 years old,
- clothing.

Salvage value

If your home (or part of it) was going to be demolished before the loss or damage happened, then we will only pay the salvage value of the home (or part of it) as if it had already been demolished.

If only part of your home is affected

When only part of your home is damaged or destroyed, then we pay to repair or rebuild only the area that was affected by the damage. We don't pay for:

- extra expenses to replace or match undamaged parts to create a uniform appearance (but we do cover you for up to $500 under the included benefit 'Matching repairs'),
- extra costs to rebuild or repair your home to a better condition than it was in before it was damaged or destroyed (unless we need to meet current building standards).

Pairs, sets and collections

We provide cover for loss or damage to pairs, sets or collections, but this cover is limited in some circumstances. If the item is:

- part of a pair, set or collection, and
- the remaining item(s) still function as manufactured, then we only pay to repair or replace the lost or damaged part. We will pay the proportional replacement value of that part only. For example:

- if a pair of earrings is worth $500, and only one earring suffers loss or damage, we will pay up to $250 to repair or replace that item, or pay you $250 if it can't be repaired or replaced (ie 50% the total value of the pair), or
- if a collection of 10 books is worth $1,000 and 1 book suffers loss of damage, we will pay up to $100 to repair or replace that item, or pay you $100 if it can't be repaired or replaced (ie 10% the total value of the collection), or
- if one hearing aid out of a pair suffers loss or damage, and a repaired or replaced hearing aid will not function with the remaining one, then we will replace both hearing aids to create a fully functioning pair.

We won't pay:

- to repair or replace an undamaged item in order to achieve a match with a repaired or replaced item,
- for any decrease in the overall value of any pair, set, or collection.

Increase to your sum insured

If your home sum insured doesn't fully cover the loss or damage to your home, then when we agree to pay your claim, we will increase your home sum insured.

We increase your home sum insured by a proportion of the uplift rate that applies when you make your claim.

For example, you make a claim halfway through your period of insurance. If the uplift rate at the time is 5%, then we will increase your home sum insured by 2.5% – that is, half of the uplift rate, as you made the claim halfway through the period of insurance.

The increase we make to your home sum insured in this way may not be enough to cover all of your loss or damage. You should monitor your sum insured to make sure it provides the right amount of cover.

If you're registered or required to be registered for GST

Each time you make a claim you must tell us the percentage of Input Tax Credits (ITC) you are entitled to claim on your premium for the period of insurance during which the incident happened. If you do not tell us the correct percentage of ITCs, you may have to pay GST, penalties and interest. We will not cover you for these amounts.

You must also tell us whether you would be entitled to claim ITCs if you repaired or replaced the item you are making a claim for. We will reduce any payment we make to you by an amount equal to the ITC you would be entitled to, if any.

This section explains other important information you should know such as how we calculate your premium, how your personal information is handled, management of disputes or complaints, and definitions for words that have special meanings.

There is an Index at the back of this PDS with a handy list of keywords, which appear in this document.

Premium & discount guide

How we calculate your premium

To calculate your premium, we assess the likelihood of you making a claim according to various items of information about your policy which we call premium rating factors. The importance of the premium rating factors we use, and the way in which we combine them to determine your premium varies by type of cover and from person to person and may change over time. The table below shows significant premium rating factors that might affect your premium.

Your premium also includes any discounts to which you may be entitled, as well as any applicable government statutory charges, levies, duties, GST and other taxes.

When you change or renew your policy, we review your premium and increase or decrease it in line with any relevant changes to your circumstances. Even if you do not make any changes to your policy, your renewal premium may change. We may choose to limit the amount of any premium increase or decrease you experience on renewal. Your renewal premium may change because the premium is affected by other factors including:

- the cost of claims which have been paid and which are expected to be paid in the future,
- new data we have collected on premium rating factors,
- changes to the cost of running our business, or
- changes in government statutory charges.

The table below and continued on page 105 shows significant premium rating factors that might affect your premium. This is not an exhaustive list of our premium rating factors.

Premium Factors	Home	Contents
You and your
Claims history Premiums may be lower if you have not made insurance claims in the past.	✓	✓
Age Premiums may be lower for older policy holders who tend to occupy their home more during the day than younger policy holders, leading to fewer claims for older policyholders.	✓	✓

Premium Factors	Home	Contents
Your home at the insured address
Address and location Premiums may be higher if your home is in an area with higher rates of crimes such as theft or breaking and entering. Premiums may be higher if your home is in a low lying area with a higher likelihood of flooding.	✓	✓
Sum insured Premiums may be higher for higher sum insured values chosen by you since there are likely to be greater costs required to rebuild, repair or replace higher valued homes or contents after an accident.	✓	✓
Physical characteristics of the home The characteristics of your home including the type of building, year of construction and primary construction materials can affect the likelihood and cost for repairs and replacement. Premiums may be higher where any of these characteristics make your home more susceptible to crime, or more vulnerable to significant weather events.	✓	✓
Occupancy Whether the dwelling is owner-occupied or rented to you may impact your premium.	✓	✓
Your policy choices
Excess amount You may choose to lower or increase your basic excess. By lowering your basic excess you will increase your premium and by increasing it you will reduce your premium.	✓	✓
